

Santander concludes €7.072 billion rights issue with investor demand amounting to more than eight times the number of new shares offered

The value of total requested subscriptions equivalent to over €58 billion

Madrid, 26 July 2017 - PRESS RELEASE

Banco Santander announced today that it has concluded the €7.072 billion rights issues initiated on 3 July 2017 following the acquisition of Banco Popular. The transaction, the largest M&A financing rights issue in Europe since 2010, was subscribed more than eight times over with the value of total demand for subscriptions equivalent to more than €58 billion.

Requests to subscribe a total of 12,081,854,169 shares were received during the transaction, representing 829% of the 1,458,232,745 new shares issued. The new shares are expected to start trading on Spanish stock exchanges on July 31st.

The transaction achieved the tightest discount to TERP (17.75%) seen in any M&A financing rights issue in Europe above €3bn in the last 10 years.

Since the announcement of the rights issue, which will increase the number of Santander shares by 10%, the bank's share price has increased by 1.83%, making Santander the only bank to achieve a positive share price performance from the date of announcement to the end of subscription period among recent rights issues.

During 2017 Santander's share price has increased by 19.1% (at 25 July 2017), with a total shareholder return ('TSR'), including dividends paid in 2017, of 21.5%, well above the total return of the Stoxx Banks Index of 14%.

Feedback from analysts and investors has been positive with number of 'buy' ratings for Banco Santander S.A. increasing by 11 percentage points from 32% of analysts to 43% since the transaction was announced.

Banco Santander Chief Financial Officer, Jose Garcia Cantera, said:

"The acquisition of Popular is a unique opportunity to accelerate our strategy in Spain and Portugal and we are delighted with the success of this rights issue and the support we have received from investors. It is a testament to the strength of the strategic and financial rationale supporting the deal, as well as a strong vote of confidence in Banco Santander, in Spain and in Europe."

The integration of Santander and Popular will significantly enhance Santander's franchises in both Spain and Portugal. In Spain, the Bank will become market leader in both lending and deposits, serving over 17 million customers with a credit market share of c.20%. The combined business will have a 25% market share in SME lending in Spain - a key driver of economic growth for the country.
